Real Estate Market 37 Wall street New York.

There are in the United States of America, many cultivated Farms, with improvements of every grade, which the owners from a variety of causes desire to sell. There are also in the market, new Lands, owned by purvate individuals, in tracts varying from 46 to 10,000 Acres each, surrounded by cultivated lands and a thriving population—Mill sites—Manufacturing establishments—City Lots and Houses—and an inexhaustible supply of Mineral treatures. Then there are if our country and in Europe, thousands of industrious and enterprising men, whose interest, and the interest of whose posterity, would be greatly promoted by their becoming proprietors of such portions of this property, as is adapted to their circumstances and wants. These will gladly embrace the opportunity to purchase, when they become acquainted with the fact, that there is such an abundant supply in the market, within the limit of their means, affording an opportunity to make a favorable servetion.

Perceiving in the existence of these facts, the want of an "Association Acenter," to collect and communicate such information, as will be calculated to bring purchasers to those who have Real Estate for sale; and to enable those who de-sire to purchase, to find the very spot where their wants can be most advantageously supplied, we have organized auch an Arency, and have opened a Register, for recording accurate descriptions of the Real Estate which is on sale in all parts of our country, with the price, terms, and surrounding ch-cumstances.

By this means we are now prepared to give authentic information, where can be purchased on the most advantageous terms, property of the following descriptions, it:

Our Register contains a description of some of the most highly cultivated and beautifully situated Farms for gentlemen's country seats, some fronting on the sea, and some on Rivers and Lakes, and stocked with an abundance of fruit of the finest qualities.

But, what we regard as the most interesting fact, developed by the communications for our Register, is, that there are many splendid Farms, with valuable improvements, which are offered for sale at prices varying from first to ten dollars an acre, and where the location and climate present the strongest inducements, to persons about to make choice of a spot of earth for the establishment of a permanent home for themselves and their posterity
